

Here is your tip for November

Managing passwords and login details and matching them up with who has paid or who has cancelled a subscription and ensuring that only current financial members can gain access to your members content is one of the most challenging aspects of running a membership program.

But not any more!

Now Memberzine.com handles all these details for you.

Whether you want a membership program with monthly payments, annual payments, even lifetime memberships, Memberzine.com can take care of all the details for you. So all you have to do is provide the content and then you can focus on doing what you are good at - selling your membership program - oh and watching all those subscription $$$ roll in, every month...

We'll have another tip next month.

Kind regards

Kerrie Mullins-Gunst
