Here is your tip for May

Your members often want to buy more of your products, so don't neglect to include information about how they can get more of what you offer inside the members only area. Some Membership Site Owners like to offer discounts or a Special of the Month on a particular product that is only available to members.

If your membership program is free or low cost, eventually you should consider adding an upgraded or premium level of membership with extra content or value that you can promote inside the members are.

If your membership program is free or low cost, eventually you should consider adding an upgraded or premium level of membership with extra content or value that you can promote inside the members are.

For an example of one way to do this you can join the Sales Leader Club as a Silver Member very inexpensively at <http://salesleaderclub.com/>

We'll have another tip next month.

Kind regards
